HOMILY

For 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's parable of the talents is a perfect example of our lives here on earth. God created each and every one of us and placed us here on earth for a purpose.

He put into each of us different talents so that we can use them to work on His behalf here on earth. There is so much work here on earth to be done and God cannot do it on His own, so He creates us and gives us different strengths to accomplish specific assignments for Him.

Now, how do we identify that specific assignment that God has given us? We know our talents by identifying those passions and hobbies that we find ourselves doing effortlessly, with self-drive, and also which benefit positively those around us.

For example, you may have a passion for helping the needy and the orphans, therefore you use any coin or time you have at your disposal to be of service to them. That is one of the talents that Jesus is talking about!

Others may have passions, knowledge, or training in being a doctor. Now, Jesus tells us that that is a talent that has been given to you by God.

You know, it's God's work to heal but He has delegated that work to you as a doctor to take care of the sick by treating them.

And treat them the best you can, with all the knowledge and ability given to you by God. This example applies to all other professions, occupations, and skills in the labour market.

Now, let us interweave the example above with this Parable of the Talents. God created the world and entrusted all the possessions in it to man and this man is me and you.

We were given different capabilities to make sure we take care of everything around us including the environment, animals and fellow human beings.

Now, at the end of time, God will ask you, "How did you use that talent or knowledge or skills or expertise that I gave you to serve Me and your neighbour?" He will also ask a doctor, "Why did you send away a sick widow without treatment just because she did not have enough for the consultation fee?"

These questions will be asked to each one of us by God if we fail to be of service to other people when we have the opportunity, capacity, and capability to do so.

Therefore, let us use our skills, passions, expertise, knowledge, etc, to serve those around us, in the best way possible, with all the love we have and with utmost justice, and by doing this we will be doing the work God created us for.

Jesus says, if we do our work well, more will be given to us and we will grow rich but if we do not put our talents into action, they will be snatched from us.

Again, Jesus says that one was given five talents, another two, and another one. This means that for one kind of task, like taking care of the sick in a hospital, different people are given different strengths.

Maybe a nurse could be the one with five talents, a doctor or surgeon with two talents, and a lab technician or pharmacist with one talent.

So depending on where your talent lies, do what is expected of you in the best way possible because that is where you will receive your blessings.

Do not belittle your talent just because other people despise it, just follow the voice of God from your heart.

Odgovornost za talente (A 33nkg)

Nalazimo se na kraju liturgijske godine pa je logično što se pred nas postavlja tekst iz Evanđelja po Mateju u kojem je riječ o završnici tijeka našega ljudskog življenja. Pomoću prispodobe o talentima misao je usmjerena prema činjenici kako mi ljudi nismo dogotovljena stvorenja, već obdarena brojnim predispozicijama, mogućnostima, sposobnostima koje, uz pomoć drugih i uz vlastiti angažman, treba razvijati i usavršavati kako bismo te svoje sposobnosti-talente ugrađivali u dobrobit ljudskog življenja. Taj proces usavršavanja izražen je kroz prispodobu o talentima.

Prisjetimo se da je kod drevnih Grka riječ "tálanton" označavala novčanu jedinicu kojom se je moglo platiti šest tisuća nadnica. Dakle, ne može se opravdati onoga koji nije htio ništa poduzimati misleći kako je primio "malo" - tek jedan talent. Mogao je i trebao je poslušati gospodara, ali nije se htio potruditi, pa upravo zato biva ukoren i kažnjen. U svjetlu odgovornog angažmana treba shvatiti i ove Isusove riječi: »Onomu koji ima još će se dati, neka ima u izobilju, a od onoga koji nema oduzet će se i ono što ima.«

To znači: Onaj koji, primjerice, razvija svoju inteligenciju postaje oštroumniji, pametniji i mudriji, dok onaj koji se prepusti nebrizi i neodgovornosti u opasnosti je da sve izgubi.

Bit je poruke u tome da nam život bude prožet ustrajnom i odgovornom djelatnošću već prema sposobnostima-talentima i smjernicama danim od Boga Stvoritelja.
