The Path of True Greatness

Today's readings reveal the profound truth of God's Kingdom — it is not built on power, but on service and self-giving love. The prophet Isaiah speaks of the Servant of God who suffers and bears the sins of many: "Through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear." (Isaiah 53:11) God is not a distant judge who observes from above; He enters into human pain and transforms suffering into a source of redemption. His love passes through the cross — and in that very way, it becomes the path of liberation for us.

The Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus is our great High Priest who has experienced weakness and pain Himself: "He has been tested in every way, yet without sin." (Hebrews 4:15) Therefore, we can approach God without fear: "Let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and find grace for timely help." (Hebrews 4:16) God does not seek perfect people but those who trust Him. When we feel lost, wounded, or weak, we can come to Him with confidence, knowing that He understands our human frailty.

In the Gospel of Mark, James and John ask Jesus for places of honor beside Him. Jesus responds with words that overturn human logic: "Whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your servant." (Mark 10:43) In God's Kingdom, greatness is not measured by authority but by love that gives itself. The Son of Man came "not to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:45)

This message invites us to discover the meaning of our own lives in service. In everyday life — in our families, workplaces, and communities — every opportunity to help another person becomes a space where God works through us. Greatness does not belong to those who hold power, but to those whose hearts are ready to love. To serve does not mean to be less; it means to be more like Christ.

In the sufferings we carry, we can find a chance to grow in faith; in prayer, we find the strength to approach God's mercy; and in serving others, we find the true essence of Gospel love. Let us embrace the Gospel's logic of greatness — one that is born in humility, sustained in compassion, and fulfilled in love.

Molitva Gospi u svakoj potrebi . . .

O, slavna, milosrdna Gospo! Mnogima koji su se molili pred tvojim likom udijelila si brojne milosti.

Pun pouzdanja i ja molim pred tvojim svetim likom: pomozi mi u mojoj nevolji. Znam da nisam zavrijedio milost, ali se uzdam u beskonačnu ljubav tvoga Sina koji me svojom ljubavlju učinio dostojnim ljubavi Oca nebeskoga.

Uvjeren u tvoju neizmjernu majčinsku ljubav, utječem se tvome čudotvornom zagovoru. Pomozi mi u ovoj potrebi, tebi poznatoj. Isprosi mi pomoć od Boga.

Neka me zahvalnost za tvoju dobrotu potakne da budem vjeran Bogu, da živim prema evanđelju tvoga Sina i dopustim da me vodi Duh Sveti. O, Majko, reci Bogu samo jednu riječ za mene i on će te uslišati.

Hvala ti, Gospo! Amen.
