Second Sunday of Advent – From Heaviness to Hope

This Second Sunday of Advent turns our eyes to a God who gently leads His people from heaviness to hope. The readings speak of a people who have known exile, guilt, and disappointment, yet are told that God has not forgotten them and is already opening a path home. Advent begins right there: not in a perfect life, but in our real worries, wounds, and questions. Many carry grief, fatigue, or shame. Into this reality, God speaks a quiet but firm promise of a new beginning.

We are invited to remember what God has already done for us. Faith does not rest only on how we feel today, but on God’s faithful action in the past: in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, and in concrete moments of our own story. When we bring to mind times when God strengthened, guided, or surprised us, our hearts are protected against cynicism. This grateful memory prepares us to welcome Christ more deeply this Christmas.

At the same time, Advent is a call to prepare the way for the Lord in very practical ways. The image of straightened paths and levelled obstacles can be translated into our daily lives: healing broken relationships, letting go of pride, softening harsh attitudes, returning to prayer, the sacraments, and acts of charity. Conversion is not self-accusation; it is cooperation with a God who wants to come closer to us and, through us, closer to others.

In a world marked by war, division, and uncertainty, Advent hope is not naïve. It is the decision to trust that the coming of Christ is stronger than any darkness. As a parish, we can live this hope by small but concrete steps: an extra moment of silence for prayer, a visit to someone lonely, choosing reconciliation over bitterness. May this Advent be a time in which God can continue the good work He has begun in each of us and make us signs of His light for those around us.

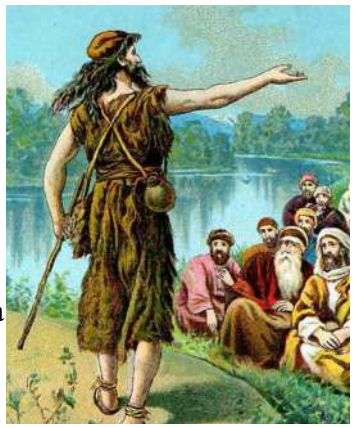
POZIV NA OBRAĆENJE



Obratite se, veli Ivan. Od čega? Čemu? Svatko bi se od nas trebao u tome smislu zamisliti. Teško da nam netko sa strane može reći što to znači za svakoga pojedinoga od nas. Što bi za mene mogao značiti poziv Obrati se!

Možda sam zanemario redovitu molitvu. Možda se na misi i ne trudim sudjelovati i tijelom i duhom. Ili sam zanemario svoje dužnosti. Bježim u isprazne zabave bez kraja i konca. Ili se prepuštam nečemu što nije samo neki nemar, nego pravi grijeh mišlju, riječju, djelom ili propustom… Ili jednostavno, makar tvrdim da vjerujem u Boga i u nj se uzdam, ipak živim kao da Boga nema, kao da menom i mojim životom upravljaju samo potrebe i prohtjevi ovoga svijeta…

Veli dalje Ivan: Približilo se kraljevstvo nebesko! Doista, tu je. Među nama. U svakome od nas.

Ako nam se i čini da smo i suviše ucijepljeni i uronjeni u ovaj svijet, ako nam se i čini da smo preslabi oduprijeti se zamamnostima ispraznostima ovoga svijeta, ipak trebamo znati: kraljevstvo je Božje među nama, Božja nas milost prožima i prati, u nama je silna snaga Duha Svetoga.

Duh, snaga i milost Isusa Krista među nama je. Prolazi našim ulicama. Samo se treba odvažiti i surađivati s Božjom milošću. * * * *

Ponosni roditelji Michael LeCastre i Daniela rođena Turčinov krstili su svoju kćer: Lana Mila LeCastre.
