14. rujna slavimo

BLAGDAN UZVIŠENJA SVETOG KRIŽA

I will go back to my father...

On this 24th Sunday of ordinary time, united by our faith in Christ, we have gathered in the presence of our Lord who is merciful and compassionate.

Today, the church offers us golden opportunity to reflect on God's mercy and compassion. This is fully revealed in His son Jesus Christ. One important fact that runs through all the readings of this Sunday is the readiness of God to welcome and receive us irrespective of how much we have fallen and gone away from him.

In the first reading of today, we discover a God who is faithful to his vows. He also demonstrated that his love and mercy surpass his anger and judgement. As a merciful and compassionate father, God heard the prayers of Moses on behalf of his people. Hence, He fulfilled His promise that: "If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray…I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin…." (2 Chr 7:14).

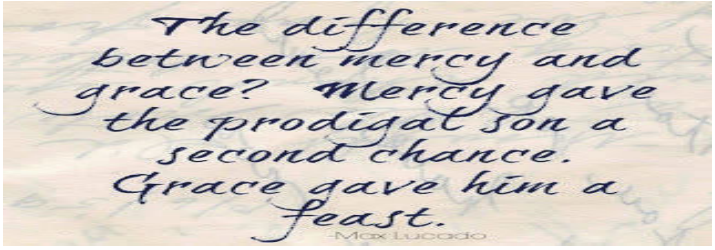

A very important lesson we must learn from this reading is, the power of intercession for both ourselves and for others. Like Moses, the Christ we celebrate today, relentlessly continues to intercede for us every day. This is especially at the sacrifice of the Holy Mass. So, we must not be tired of interceding for one another and for our world before our merciful and compassionate Lord. So, we must approach Him in prayers always, reminding him of his promises as Moses did.

In the second reading Paul reminds us that, like himself, we are all products of God's mercy. In this reading Paul recounted how his salvation was made possible through the intercession and mercy of Christ.

In today's gospel, Christ was accused of welcoming sinners. Through his action and parables, He demonstrated how merciful and compassionate he is towards us. In spite of our sins and stubbornness, Christ is willing to welcome us back to himself. Each day, He beckons us: "Come let us settle the matter, even though your sins are as red as crimson, you shall be as white as snow" (Is 1:18 -19). Through his merciful and compassionate heart, He is ready to make all things new for us again. It does not matter what it will cost Him.

So, like the prodigal son, it is time to accept this invitation. It is time to return to the merciful and compassionate Lord whose mercy surpasses his judgment and wrath. God has made our return very easy through Jesus Christ. So, all we need is to realize ourselves.

Sincerely, and humbly we must make a very important decision like the prodigal son: "I will leave this place and go back to my father." We must not be ashamed to return to God our father because: "His steadfast love never ceases, and His mercy never comes to an end. They are new every morning, and great is His faithfulness" (Lam 3:22-23).
