Homily for 5th Sunday of Ordinary Time –YR A

"Salt, Light and Discipleship"

Jesus says that we are called to be salt of the earth. In recent decades, salt has gotten a bad reputation because of the health concerns associated with too much salt in our diet. Salt is one of the basic tastes we have and a certain amount of it is important for health and even survival. Our culture just gets too much of it and so salt has become another four letter word. However, if we take a moment and look historically at the importance of salt, Jesus invitation to be the salt of the earth will make more sense.

First of all, in ancient times, salt was considered an important preservative. They didn't have refrigerators other than what they could manage with underground pantries so when we discovered how salt could extend the shelf life of food, creating edible salt became a very important and lucrative business. Over time, salt therefore became an important item for trade between countries and was even traded as a kind of currency.

Salt was also very important in many religious practices. You see its use in ancient Egypt burial customs. You see its use in the Old Testament with regard to legally binding covenants and sacrifices offered on the altar. Even in our faith tradition, to this day there is still an option in the rite of blessing holy water that includes adding a little salt. There is a special prayer that goes along with that practice. All of this information is meant for us to have a deeper understanding of what Jesus is getting at in our Gospel reading.

So when Jesus says, you are the salt of the earth, what he is inviting us to consider is, by becoming disciples that proclaim the Kingdom of God in word and deed, we become the preservative that keeps the world from spoiling. Get it? He is also saying that by proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel by the example of our lives, we will give the world in which we live in better taste. Just as food tastes better with salt, the world tastes better when people live the Gospel. See it?

Jesus also invites us to consider, "You are the light of the world. Jesus continues, "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." I cannot help but draw attention to the Eucharistic implication here. If we believe Jesus is fully present in the Holy Communion we receive at Mass today, and if mom is right when she says we are what we eat, then we are called as a Eucharistic people to become Christ to the world.

We can ask ourselves, what does this look like in my interactions at work, in my interactions at school, in my interactions with family members, what does this look like at a parish level or even in how I care for my own body and soul? What Jesus is saying is, it is not enough to simply say we are disciples. Discipleship must look like something. Discipleship looks like a city shining on a hill. Discipleship looks like a lamp giving light to a household. Discipleship looks a preservative that keeps the world from spoiling. Discipleship is the spice that makes life taste better.

Vi ste sol zemlje i svjetlo svijeta

Bezbrojne poslovice na temu soli daju do znanja da je sol bila dragocjeno dobro. Gradovi na cestama soli Europe bili su u srednjem vijeku bogati i imućni. Stoga se ne treba čuditi da sol u biblijskom govornom području igra veoma važnu ulogu.

Ako nas Isus označava kao sol zemlje, to onda znači, da se moramo umiješati u društvene poslove, a ne se povlačiti u sakristije. Mi nismo tu, da budemo dovoljni sami sebi i da gledamo na tobožnji zao svijet.

Biti malen, to dakako može zastrašiti. To može voditi k tomu, da se povlači u zajednicu istomišljenika; da se želi ostati međusobno. To je na prvi pogled shvatljivo. Jer, tamo gdje sam među onima koji su istoga mišljenja, tu se osjećam shvatljiv, budući da ne moram ulaziti u sukobe i opravdavati se za svoja uvjerenja ili sve argumentirati. Gdje se pozivam na stav, tu sam napadnut i izložen sam kritici.

"Vi ste sol zemlje". Zadaća soli je da podupire ukus. Stoga je naša zadaća, otkrivati snagu našega društva i to društvo potpomagati. Ne trebamo ništa novo izmišljati, mi možemo doprinijeti, da druge ohrabrimo u sličnim ponašanjima.

"Svjetlo svijeta" koje dobivamo od Isusa, isto tako će potamniti, ako smo doduše po imenu kršćani, ali ovu pripadnost Gospodinu stavljamo u pitanje po našemu životu ili zatajenjem. Tada njegovo svjetlo koje smo trebali dati dalje, ne može sjati u našim djelima. Može se dogoditi da ima ljudi koji traže Boga i žele ga naći u našemu životu, ali im ne uspijeva, jer smo mi podbacili. Tamo naprotiv gdje se vjera i život podudaraju, tu će snaga Kristova svjetla biti jasna. Tada svijetli naše svjetlo pred ljudima, da vide naša dobra djela i slave Oca koji je na nebesima (usp. Mt 5,16).
