Homily for 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

On 6th August we celebrated the feast of The Transfiguration of our Lord Jesus Christ on the high mountain. The transfiguration was preceded by several events where Jesus started seeing that the faith of His disciples had started to dwindle.

One of the events that made the disciples to have doubts if Jesus was the Messiah they had been waiting for was this one we are going to ponder today.

Jesus had gone to the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples who do people say He was. They gave Him the answer and when He asked them who do they think He is, Simon Peter said: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Upon saying this Jesus bestowed on Him the mantle to lead the Church.

Immediately after giving Peter the Keys to Heaven, He started saying that He will be persecuted and Killed by elders and scribes.

This was a shocker to the disciples because, in their human thinking, they thought that the Messiah could not be killed or even die.

They knew that Jesus had all the powers on earth to avoid that death. So when Jesus said that He must die then they started having doubts about Jesus being the real Messiah. Their faith in Jesus started dwindling.

When Jesus, Peter, James, and John descended from the mountain, they met the other disciples trying to drive a demon out of a boy, but they were unable. Jesus told them that they were unable to drive it out because their faith in Him had started to fade.

So, what is the main point of this long account of the immediate context of the transfiguration of Jesus? This is the point! At this point in time, Jesus had already done almost three years of His 3½ years of public ministry. Now Jesus was preparing for His passion, death, and resurrection, events that had to (must) happen.

Events that had been prophesied before by the prophets. Events that would culminate in our salvation. Then here was Peter trying to tell Jesus that He would never let that happen, what has already been planned in Heaven.

Jesus got upset and told him, “Get behind me Satan You are an obstacle to me” because what He was saying was not in tandem with what was already planned in Heaven.

This dwindling of faith, especially by Peter, had to be restored during The Transfiguration especially when the voice of God came from the cloud and said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” The trio became witnesses of Jesus in His Heavenly manifestation.

Let us, therefore, have unwavering faith in Jesus because we are lucky to know that He is indeed the messiah who came to save us from our sins.
