HODOČAŠĆE U RIM U JUBILARNOJ GODINI

ZAHVALJUJEMO SVIMA KOJI SU SE PRIJAVILI.

First Sunday of Lent

Lent is a sacred time of preparation when the Church invites us to reflect more deeply on our spiritual life, our faith, and our relationship with God. The first reading (Deuteronomy 26:4-10) recalls God's faithfulness to Israel, reminding us that we, too, must recognize God's hand in our lives. Just as He delivered His people from slavery, He also desires to free us from whatever holds us captive—be it sin, fear, or doubt. This Lent, we might ask ourselves: What is keeping me from fully living in the freedom of God's children?

Psalm 91 is a beautiful reminder of God's protection: "For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways" (Psalm 91:11). These words offer comfort and security, reassuring us that we are never alone in our struggles.

In the second reading (Romans 10:8-13), Paul emphasizes the power of faith and confessing Christ as Lord. Faith is not just an internal belief but a lived trust in God's saving power.

The Gospel (Luke 4:1-13) tells the story of Jesus' temptation in the wilderness. After fasting for forty days, Satan tempts Him with food, power, and the challenge to test God's protection. Each time, Jesus responds with Scripture, showing us how to resist temptation by relying on God's Word. This Gospel challenges us to reflect: Where do I encounter temptations that pull me away from God? How can I, like Jesus, find strength in prayer and Scripture?

As we embark on this Lenten season, we are invited to journey into the "desert" of our hearts, creating space for introspection and communion with God. Just as Jesus withdrew to the wilderness, we too are called to detach from distractions and confront the temptations that hinder our spiritual growth. Lent is a time when we are invited to look at our own struggles, our own weaknesses, and place them before God, trusting that He will sustain us. Jesus' victory over temptation is a reminder that we do not face our spiritual battles alone—God's grace is always present to help us persevere.

This sacred time encourages us to engage in prayer, deepening our relationship with God through regular, heartfelt communication. Let prayer be the anchor that sustains us amidst trials. We are called to embrace fasting, considering abstaining from certain comforts or habits, not as mere deprivation, but as a means to cultivate self-discipline and empathy for those in need. Almsgiving reminds us to extend kindness and support to others, reflecting God's love through acts of charity and compassion.

Lent is not solely about personal sacrifice but about transformation. It is an opportunity to realign our lives with God's will, emerging renewed and ready to celebrate the joy of Easter. It is a call to conversion, a time to renew our hearts and to walk more closely with Christ. Let us take these forty days seriously, opening our hearts to God's presence, surrendering our burdens, and allowing Him to work within us. May the Holy Spirit guide and strengthen us during this Lenten journey, and may we enter Easter with hearts purified and renewed.

Peace and blessings.

Režiser Jakov Sedlar napravio je film o hrvatskim mučenicima, koji su bili ubijeni zato što su katolici, Hrvati, svećenici, časne sestre, bogoslovi itd. Riječ je o 663 mučenika. Za engesku verziju toga filma potrebna mu je financiska pomoć, pa je zamolio i vjernike naše župe da pomognu. Evo broja računa na koji možete poslati svoju donaciju.
