Good Shepherd

Today's liturgy places before us the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. In the Gospel we hear his words: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." It is a short sentence, but it contains the whole relationship between God and the human person.

Jesus does not speak about a crowd, about an anonymous multitude. He speaks about knowing, about a personal relationship. "I know them." This means that God does not look at us from a distance. He knows our joys and fears, our struggles and weaknesses. He knows us better than we know ourselves.

But there is also the second part: "My sheep hear my voice." This is a question for each one of us: do we recognize his voice? In a world full of noise—information, opinions, fears—it is easy to lose our direction. There are so many "voices" telling us how to live, what matters, and where to seek happiness.

The voice of Jesus is not the loudest. It is often gentle, but it is clear. It can be recognized by the fact that it brings peace; it does not lead to fear but to trust; it does not close the heart but opens it.

A third important point: "They follow me." It is not enough just to hear—we must also set out. Faith is not only an idea, but a journey. It means making decisions that are sometimes difficult: to forgive when it is hard, to remain faithful when it is challenging, to choose what is good when it would be easier to choose otherwise.

Jesus promises something great: "I give them eternal life." This is not only a promise for the future, but a reality that begins already now. Life with God changes the way we live each day—it gives meaning even in difficulty, it gives hope even when everything seems lost.

Today's Sunday also reminds us of the importance of praying for vocations. The Church needs shepherds—priests, religious brothers and sisters—but above all, people who will listen to Christ's voice and have the courage to follow it. Perhaps God is calling someone even today, perhaps quietly, but persistently.

Finally, let us ask ourselves: 1. Do I truly listen to the voice of Jesus? 2. Do I give him space in my life? 3. Am I ready to follow him, even when I do not know where he is leading me?

May the Good Shepherd guide us, protect us, and make us attentive to his voice, so that in him we may find true life.

Ja sam dobri Pastir i Vrata ovcama

Današnja nas sv. misa stavlja pred sliku Isusa kao Dobrog Pastira. U Evanđelju slušamo njegove riječi: „Ovce moje slušaju glas moj; ja ih poznajem i one idu za mnom." To je kratka rečenica, ali u njoj je sadržan cijeli odnos između Boga i čovjeka.

Isus ne govori o masi, o anonimnom mnoštvu. On govori o poznanstvu, o osobnom odnosu. „Ja ih poznajem." To znači: Bog nas ne gleda izdaleka. On zna naše radosti i strahove, naše borbe i slabosti. Poznaje nas bolje nego što mi poznajemo sami sebe.

Ali postoji i drugi dio: „Ovce moje slušaju glas moj." To je pitanje za svakoga od nas: prepoznajemo li mi njegov glas? U svijetu punom buke – informacija, mišljenja, strahova – lako je izgubiti orijentaciju. Toliko je „glasova" koji nam govore kako živjeti, što je važno, gdje tražiti sreću.

Isusov glas nije najglasniji. On je često tih, ali je jasan. Prepoznaje se po tome što donosi mir, što ne vodi u strah nego u povjerenje, što ne zatvara nego otvara srce. Treća važna stvar: „One idu za mnom." Nije dovoljno samo čuti – potrebno je i krenuti. Vjera nije samo ideja, nego hod. To znači donositi odluke koje su ponekad teške: oprostiti kad je teško, ostati vjeran kad je izazovno, birati dobro kad je lakše izabrati suprotno.

Isus obećava nešto veliko: „Ja im dajem život vječni." To nije samo obećanje za budućnost, nego stvarnost koja počinje već sada. Život s Bogom mijenja način na koji živimo svaki dan – daje smisao i onda kad je teško, daje nadu i onda kad izgleda da je sve izgubljeno.

Današnja nedjelja nas također podsjeća na važnost molitve za duhovna zvanja. Crkvi trebaju pastiri – svećenici, redovnici, redovnice – ali prije svega ljudi koji će slušati Kristov glas i imati hrabrosti slijediti ga. Možda Bog i danas nekoga od nas poziva, možda tiho, ali ustrajno.

Na kraju, zapitajmo se: Slušam li doista Isusov glas? Dajem li mu prostora u svom životu? Jesam li spreman ići za njim, čak i kad ne znam kamo me vodi?

Neka nas Dobri Pastir vodi, čuva i učini osjetljivima na njegov glas, da bismo u njemu našli pravi život. Amen.
